

Seuss on the LOOSE!

Dear Parent,

Your child took part in a program with educational entertainer Brian Richards called, "Seuss On The LOOSE!". In an effort to make this program "educationally significant" we have sent this letter home with some follow-up activities.

The main points discussed were what Dr. Seuss wanted to accomplish in his stories:

- Make Reading FUN!
- Get students to exercise their IMAGINATION!
- Teach AN Important Lesson!

The simple activities included help to reinforce the important messages already shared during the program and reviewed in the classroom. If you would like more information about our presenter and the program he presented please feel free to visit his website at:

Thanks for your support and commitment to getting your kids EXCITED about reading!

Sincerely,

Brian Richards
